

Week 8: May 25th- 29th

	Literacy/Language	Math
Mon.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Practice reading and printing the word: this ★ Print it using BIG letters, then print it using tiny letters. Can you print it 6 times? ★ Read and enjoy books for 10-15 minutes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Draw around your foot on a piece of paper ★ Cut it out carefully ★ Now ask each person in your family to trace and cut out their foot. ★ Can you place all the feet in order from shortest to longest? Longest to shortest?
Tues.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Print the letters t/h/i/s on 4 small squares of paper. Mix up the letters. Can you make the word "this"? Mix and try again. Can you ask a grown up to try? Are they right? ★ Look at books on the literacy footprint site or choose books from your own collection . Read to your favorite stuffy. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Using your footsteps, measure your bed, your couch and your table. Remember to place your feet "heel to toe" as you measure. ★ Take your paper foot outside and measure a stick, a flower ★ Find out who is the tallest person in your family, the shortest? ★ What else can you measure?
Wedn.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Have fun checking out Jack Hartman's song about the /ch/ sound on youtube. Try this link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FWg2uzAuSe4 ★ Have a grown up help you read the poem "Lunch box lunch box" ★ Talk (chat) about the words with the /ch/ sound. Make a list or draw pictures of these words. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ All about 7!!! ★ Can you make a 7 using markers or crayons? Try to make seven 7's ★ Print the number word "seven" ★ Use small items to build sets of 7 ★ Can you find parts of 7??
Thurs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Read the lunch box poem again. What do you like to have for lunch? ★ Make a list or draw and label a picture showing your favorite lunch choices. You can use the blank lunch box template or draw your own lunch box. ★ Read and enjoy books for 10-15 minutes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ Listen to the Jack Hartman song "Pump up the pattern" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hoFhVdYsmPg ★ Using two different colours, can you make your own pattern? You can draw circles or squares. ★ Try using 3 different colours to make your pattern.

Fri.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">★ If you have sidewalk chalk, practice printing the word: this or use paper and pencils inside!★ Ask a grown-up if you can use a grocery flyer to look for and cut out healthy lunch foods. Can you find 6 things you would like for lunch? (glue these on a piece of paper.) Try and print a good sentence about your picture. Example: This is cheese. Or I like cheese for my lunch.★ Read and enjoy books for 10-15 mins.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">★ Let's take 7 outside!★ Find seven stones to make a set.★ Jump 7 times on your left foot, then on your right★ Touch your toes seven times. Ask a grown up to do it too!★ Draw 7 in the sand. Go find 7 pinecones, pieces of grass, twigs to put beside your 7.★ When you go inside, listen to the story "Pattern Bugs" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4g2fKY_mwYI
------	--	--

Lunch Box , Lunch Box

Lunch Box,lunch box

What's for lunch?

Peanut Butter sandwich

And celery to crunch

Carrots and banana

And an apple to munch-

A bite and a bite and a bite...

Now I am heavy

And my lunch box is light!

Challenge of the Week

Paint a rock!!!

With your parent's help. With your parent's help, google "kindness rocks" or rock painting for tips and ideas.